Discussion statements

Charity begins at home. Idiom
All healthy citizens should be obliged to give blood at least once a year.
Everybody who earns over a certain amount should give a percentage of their salary to charity.
All young people with spare time should do some sort of voluntary work in their community.
Giving money to beggars only helps to keep them on the streets.
Aid workers should be paid very large salaries.
Neither a borrower, nor a lender be! From Shakespeare's Hamlet
It's better to have a lot of job satisfaction than a very high salary.
